This topographic map depicts the Cedar Valley region in southern Utah. Key features include the Escalante, Antelope, and Dixie National Forests, which are shaded in green. Major towns such as Cedar City, St. George, and Hurricane are marked. The map shows a network of roads, including US-89 and US-12, and various geographical features like mountains (e.g., Antelope Peak, Table Butte), lakes (e.g., Rush Lake, Quilchapa Lake), and creeks (e.g., Escalante River, Virgin River). A red line traces a route through the area, and a red box highlights the Pailite Indian Reservation. The map also shows the location of the Pailite Indian Reservation, which is situated in the southwestern part of the region.
